America's two-hundredth birthday is a time for celebration and rededication. Bob Jones University joins with all America in the joyful observance of the bicentennial of our nation. During the early 1600's when settlers from Europe first landed on America's coast, their intentions of worshipping God freely and having a nation dedicated to the Word of God were parallel to the principles upon which Bob Jones University was later founded. Seeing the need for an institution where the Word of God could be applied as instruction for daily living, Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., founded the school forty-nine years ago. Since that time, the University has honored America for those Biblical intentions which have shaped the nation, although it is greatly saddened that they are scorned so broadly today. If America and her people do not "humble themselves, and pray, and seek [God's] face, and turn from their wicked ways, . . ." then the nation's dust will be soon mixed with that of other nations who have forgotten God. The theme of the 1976 Vintage reminds us of those founding intentions and expresses the determination of Bob Jones University to uphold them.

DEDICATION

This year's VINTAGE annual is dedicated to a person who exemplifies an attitude which all Americans should possess—that of devotion to her Lord, her calling and her nation. Giving of her life unselfishly to her students, this godly lady has served at the University as dorm supervisor, social secretary, English teacher, faculty advisor, and literary advisor on the VINTAGE committee. Her life demonstrates the Biblical principle found in I Corinthians 10:31, doing her best in all things to glorify God. The 1976 VINTAGE staff proudly presents this book to Miss Isabel Potts.

FOUNDER'S DAY

The fact that Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., could not be bought, buffeted, or deterred from doing the will of God was the dominant emphasis on Founder's Day. The day was highlighted by the chapel service as two husband and wife teams, alumni and coworkers with the Founder, shared a part of his life with over six thousand students and friends of the University. James D. Edwards expressed Dr. Jones's purpose for the University as that of training young people to be leaders grounded on God's Word, while Mrs. Edwards discussed two prominent aspects of his life: his love for souls and his desire to get a job finished without compromise.

Gilbert Stenholm expressed Dr. Bob's great love for the ministerial students, his "preacher boys," while Mrs. Stenholm related some far-reaching results from the Founder's sermons on film.

"And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."

MINISTERIAL CLASS

Robert E. Hayes, V. Pres.; Daniel C. Nelson, II Sem. Pres; William M. Hill, I Sem. Pres.; Mark A. Cartwright, Sec./Treas.; Dr. Gilbert Stenholm; Frank A. Eberhardt, Chor.

"O Lord, open thou my lips," a phrase from Psalm 51:15, served as the focal point for all activities of Mission Prayer Band this past year. Faithfulness to the Lord Jesus Christ and compassion for His servants around the world inspired the students to pray daily for these missionaries. Every weekday evening after dinner, the women met in the War Memorial Chapel and the men in the Alumni Building. Each Saturday evening, however, the students held a combined meeting where they heard special reports from summer missionary teams or saw challenging films. The impact and results from M.P.B. are continuously seen in the lives of those who pray and in the lives of those for whom they pray.

MISSION PRAYER BAND

Christine Granberb, Pres.; Sharon Barnett, V. Pres.; Anne Chappell, Sec.; Robin Van Vliet, Chor.; Genevieve Ward, Pianist; Deborah Davenport, Organist; Joy Nespor, Sgt./Arms.

Sidney Dyer, Sec.; Graham Foran, Chor.; Steven Brown, Pres.; Mark Batory, V. Pres.

STUDENT UNION

Directed and led by students themselves, Student Union provided a short informal service of songs, testimonies, and a short challenge from God's Word each Sunday afternoon.

William M. Lynch, V. Pres.; Janet L. Seay, V. Pres.; Willard E. Lohnes, Jr., Chor.; Criag A. O'Neal, Pres.

ASSOCIATION OF CHRISTIAN TEACHERS

What does the principal of a Christian school look for in the teachers he hires? This is just one of many important questions answered by the Association of Christian Teachers. Faculty members and guest lecturers stressed the importance of upholding Christian principles while maintaining a standard of academic excellence. One highlight presented by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moose and Mr. Ben Robinson was a children's puppet show that taught ACT members how puppets can be used to teach Biblical principles.

LIFE SERVICE BAND

Once a month the members of Life Service Band met to receive inspiration and practical instruction in fields of service open to women. The challenge was issued for women to be faithful stewards of such sacred ministries as Bible classes, hospital visitation, Gospel tract distribution, and child evangelism.

W. Faye Richardson, Sec.; Genevieve K. Ward, Chor.; Sharon L. Barnett, Pres.; I. Suzanne Sitze, Sgt./Arms; Janice H. Birdsall, V. Pres.

The Bob Jones University spring Bible Conference, the leading Bible conference for Fundamentalists, features outstanding spokesmen of the Christian faith. This year, speakers from three different continents ministered the Word of God to the students and the thousands of visitors from every state in the Union. The Conference has become to many the focal point of the year when admonition and inspiration is gained from choice servants of God.

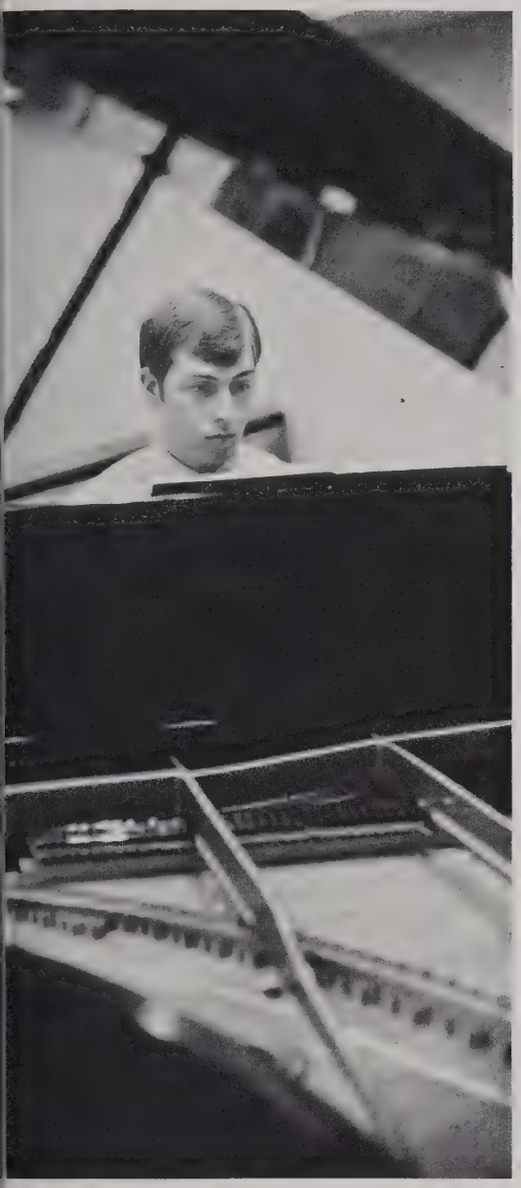
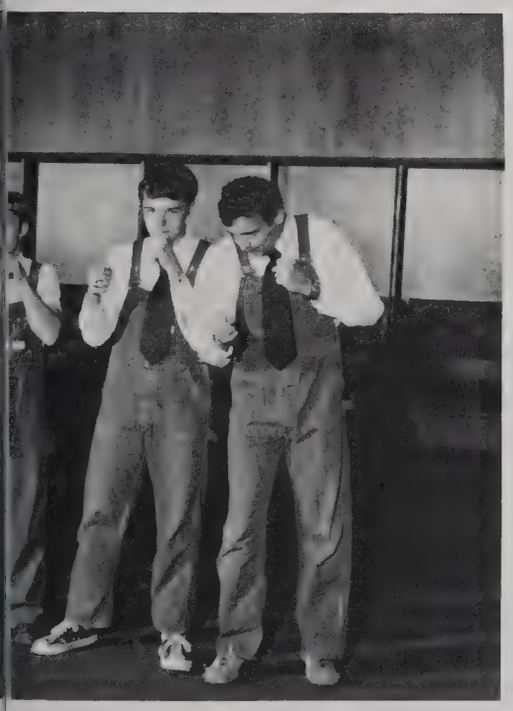
STUDENT BODY

This year's Student Body programs, presented on alternate Saturday mornings, provided both informative speeches and entertaining plays. Faculty members and visiting speakers lectured on a wide range of topics. Dr. Walter Fremont, Dean of the School of Education, began the year with a message on keeping a positive mental attitude. Later the students saw the new film, just recently released by Unusual Films, For All The Right Reasons.

The humorous Student Body programs varied each month, from the slap-stick comedy of "Sing-Sing," an original play by David Pippenger, to the subtle humor of the "Grasshopper Opera," performed in the style of the lyric opera.





Karen Liverman, Organist; David E. Pippenger, V. Pres.; Genel Flinner, S.S. Sec.; Alexander W. McCormick, Treas.; Stefanie S. May, V. Pres.; Sandra J. Rhodes, S.S. Sec.; Roger D. Van Maasdam, Pianist; Blake A. Spence, Sgt./Arms; Gary W. Newell, Pres.; Donald E. Zimmerman, Chor.; Marcia L. Strohbehn, Sec.

DEBATE ASSOCIATION

The University Debate Association offered both intramural and intercollegiate competition. Each of the forty-two societies entered teams which participated in eight elimination rounds. This narrowed the competition to the top four men's and women's teams. During commencement week the two final teams met in verbal battle on the platform of the Founder's Memorial Amphitorium. Our intercollegiate team completed its fourth year of competition with outstanding college teams in the Southeast. This season BJU teams placed in six out of seven forensic contests including one first place and one sweepstakes.

Rebecca D. Lunceford, Sec.; Lee A. Smalley, V. Pres.; Kendall R. Walker, Treas.; John E. Jenkins, Pres.; Mr. DeWitt G. Jones; Ronald Underwood, V. Pres.

LANGUAGE CLUB

Students of modern language met in French, German or Spanish club twice each month for entertaining and enlightening programs dealing with the culture of various countries. The three clubs, each headed by a vice-president, are combined to form the Language Club headed by Lee Smalley, President.

Proviann J. Pfeffer, Spanish V. Pres.; Glenn W. Fetzer, French V. Pres.; Lee A. Smalley, Pres.; Edyth E. Bacome, German V. Pres.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Bud Bierman, Dir./Alumni Affairs; Richard Kane, Sec./Treas.; James Conley, Pres.; Jeff Hargraves, III V. Pres.; Nelson McGeoch, I V. Pres.; James Brooks, II V. Pres.; Jack Tillman, Past Pres.

Through their banding together as faithful Christian alumni, the Alumni Association stands behind and supports the University as it remains firm upon the principles upon which it was founded. With its present "Physical Education Package" (PEP), now in its final phase, the Association is currently switching over to a full computerization of its business affairs.

Through its monthly publication, the Voice of the Alumni, the Association seeks not only to keep its members in contact with the University, but increasingly seeks to stress the varied activities of its members around the world. At its annual Alumni banquet held during Commencement Week last year, the Association bestowed particular recognition upon Dr. Bob Jones for his faithfulness to the Lord Jesus and his leadership and service to the University over the years. A special plaque was presented to Dr. Jones as part of the ceremony.

Jeffrey McEntee, V. Pres.; Richard Bott, Treas.; Michael Miller, Pres.; Auleen Fulton, Sec.

UNIVERSITY BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

Several times each semester the University Business Association met to hear experts form various professions. Successful men in government, industry, and business were chosen by Dean Richard Leiter and U.B.A. officers to deliver timely speeches on personal success and current economic conditions. These meetings fulfilled the emphasis of the U.B.A. which is to supplement classroom learning with practical instruction and motivation from those in business. The stock program of the Association also strove to give actual experience in stock judging and buying.

Each Sunday afternoon the masterfully staged vesper service offered spiritual enlightenment and impressed Biblical truths through music, speech and drama. Four plays directed by students were presented under the guidance of Benjamin Robinson of the Dramatic Production Department. Themes for the regular vesper programs included: "Any Other Gospel," "I Will Pay Thee My Vow," "Courage," "Do It Heartily," and "Strong in Salvation."

CLASSIC PLAYERS

This fall the Classic Players, under the direction of Beneth Jones, presented one of Shakespeare's most hilarious comedies, Much Ado About Nothing, a romantic tale of love, deception, and pretension. Members of the cast included Don Ryerson as Benedict, Sharon Woodruff as Beatrice, George Pritchard as Claudio and Verna Lynch as Hero. The play was masterfully staged with the use of a unit set. In the spring the Classic Players, under the direction of Benjamin Robinson, presented Shakespeare's tragedy, Macbeth.

Jacques Brourman, Conductor

Charlotte Symphony Orchestra

As part of its cultural entertainment, Bob Jones University brought outstanding artists to its concert stage this year. The season opened with the distinguished Charlotte Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Jacques Brourman, with Grant Johannesen, one of America's great piano virtuosos, as soloist. Later, Sandra Warfield, mezzo-soprano, and James McCracken, tenor, a popular husband-and-wife team, performed a concert of arias and duets. For the first time the University Opera Association presented Boito's Mefistofele, with guest soloist Samuel Ramey, bass, as Mefistofele; Salvador Novoa, tenor, as Faust; and Nancy Shade, soprano, as Margherita. The final visiting artist for this season was Erick Friedman, violinist, who presented a brilliant concert.

ART GALLERY

Within its stately walls, the University Art Gallery houses over four hundred masterpieces by such men as Rubens, Rembrandt, and Van Dyck. Elegance and serenity of atmosphere are achieved through the wall covering and carpet suitable to the period of the paintings which hang in each Gallery. These are complemented by furniture of the same period. Also, more than one hundred pieces of sculpture discriminately placed in the Gallery accent the beauty of the rooms. Annually, over 24,000 visitors from around the world are given expertly guided tours through the Gallery and the adjoining Bowen Biblical Museum with its varied artifacts and antiquities from Bible lands. Each visitor to the Gallery enjoys seeing such miscellaneous items of interest as imported stained-glass windows and a Byzantine baptistry. The Gallery also contains a laboratory for the restoration and preservation of its collection.

Comprised of the presidents and vice-presidents of the forty literary societies, the Inter-Society Council seeks to serve both the students and the University in a manifold capacity. This year, the success of the Freshman class party, "Podunk County Fair," was directly attributable to the I.S.C. as well as the preparations for the Thanksgiving Day Program and Turkey Bowl activities. The I.S.C. chose as its goal this year the raising of $2,500 for such purchases as resuscitation equipment for the University ambulance.

TURKEY BOWL

For the second time in four years, Alpha Omega Delta and Epsilon Zeta Chi battled one another in the annual Turkey Bowl for B.J.U.'s soccer championship. The teams were undefeated and evenly matched, but playing conditions were poor because of a wet field. Omega's Travis Babb scored the game's only goal after only three minutes of play when he headed the ball into the goal. The remainder of the contest was a defensive struggle as Mike Miller and Lee Clepper were outstanding defensively for the winners, as the Tornadoes of Zeta Chi fought valiantly to score. Clepper, who allowed only three goals the entire season as goalie, was given the Most Valuable Player award. Inter-Society Council provided an exciting half-time program consisting of the usual cross-country run and some minor competitions which were amusing for the spectators and participants alike.

After leading by only a few points throughout the first half, Chi Alpha surged ahead in the last quarter overwhelming Phi Kappa 90-75. Sparked to victory by the excellent performance of Randy White accounting for 27 points, David Webb connecting for 24 points, and Paul Pendell with 14 points, Chi Alpha could not be caught. A double victory for Chi Alpha was the recognition of David Webb as the Most Valuable Player for the season.

Leading the Phi Kappa Rams in excellent playing were Tom Santee with 23 points, Roger Smith with 17, and Gary Deedrick with 12. Squeaking by Basilean in the consolation game 77-72, Pi Gamma was led to victory by the 23 points of Larry Audas, 19 points of Warren Lennon, and 10 points of Steve Bere.

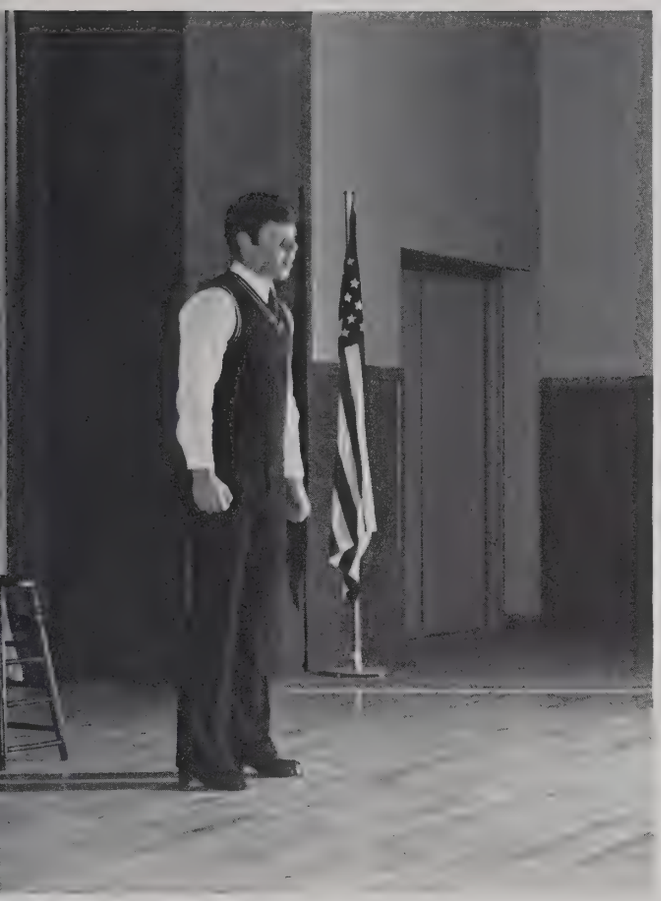
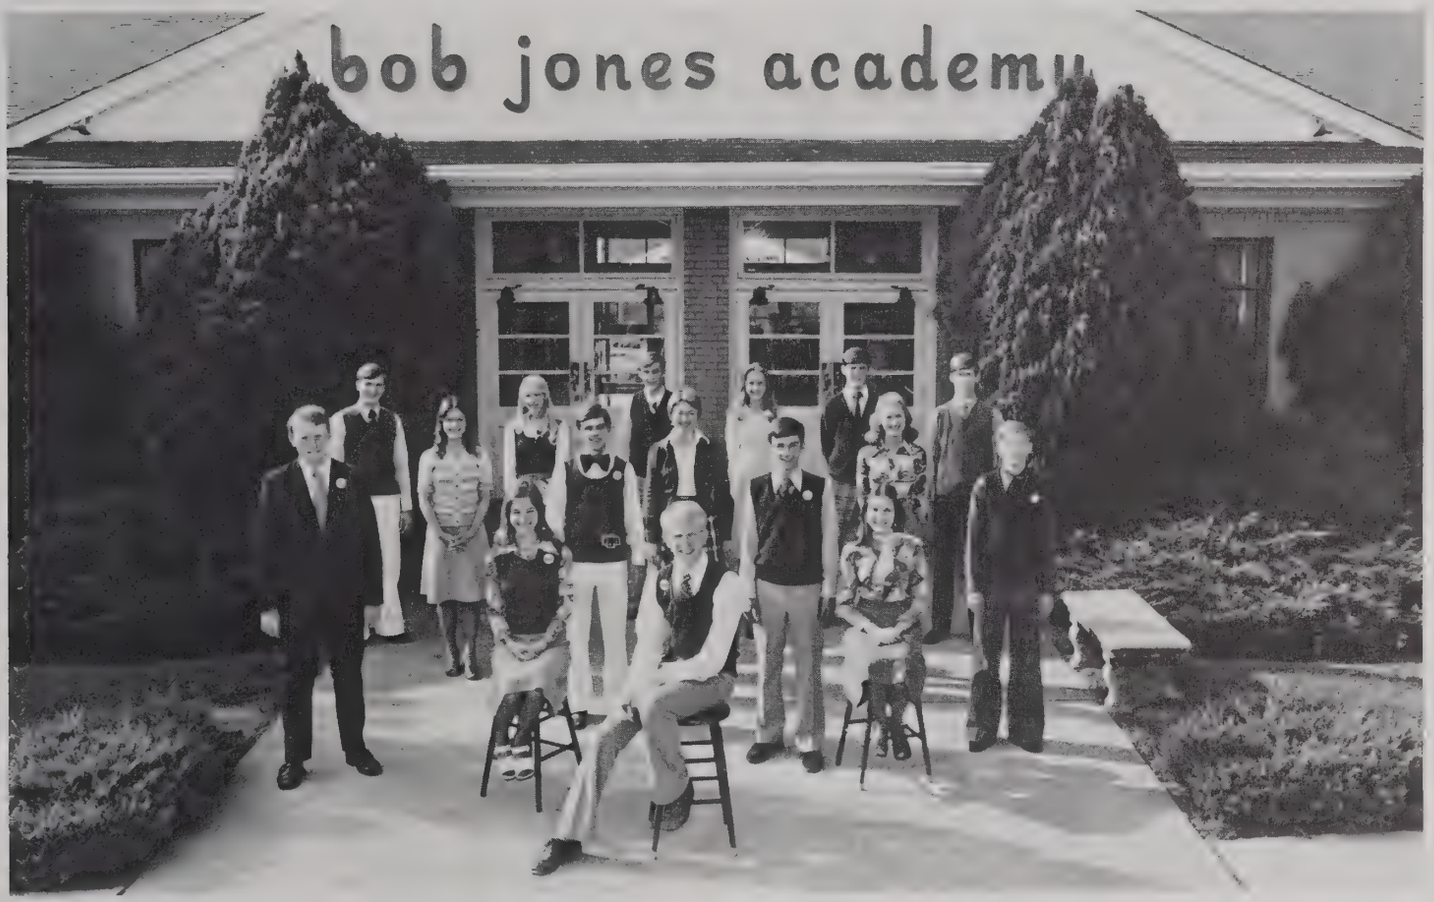
PERSONALITIES

STUDENT BODY

The Academy Student Body Organization is responsible for promoting both educational and entertaining activities for the Academy. In monthly meetings students put on inspirational and entertaining programs including humorous skits, classical plays, patriotic productions and the championship debate. Every other week the Student Body Organization held Academy Chapel, planned and conducted by students. Special speakers from the University and Academy spoke on subjects ranging from "Who is America's God?" to "School Spirit."

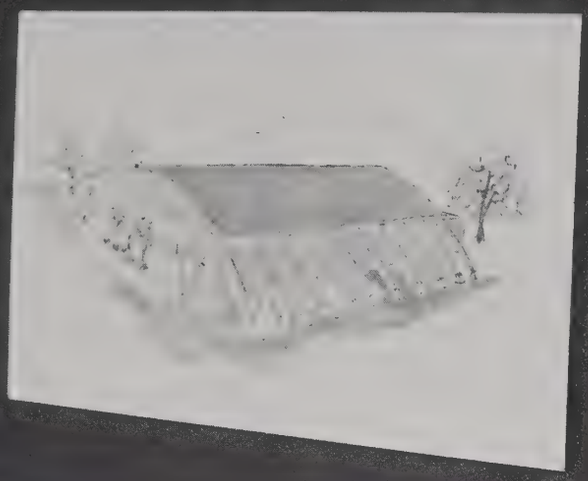
Academy Advancement Projects, a branch of the Student Body Organization, raised money this year to purchase the bleachers for the new Academy gymnasium scheduled for use in September, 1976.





Mr. William S. Pinkston, Advisor; Elizabeth G. Hansen, V. Pres.; James N. Gorsline, Pres.; Laura D. Douglas, Sec.

Operation Recreation



INTER-SOCIETY COUNCIL

Comprised of the presidents and vice-presidents of the eight societies and other Academy organizations, the Bob Jones Academy Inter-Society Council is the coordinating body for the various student activities. From its weekly meetings have emerged new regulations, suggestions, and plans for the Academy. In addition to this, the Council fosters interest in Christian extension program, sports, debate, academic achievement, and other facets of Academy life. The Council also encourages competition for the Leadership Trophy and the newly organized Talent Contest.

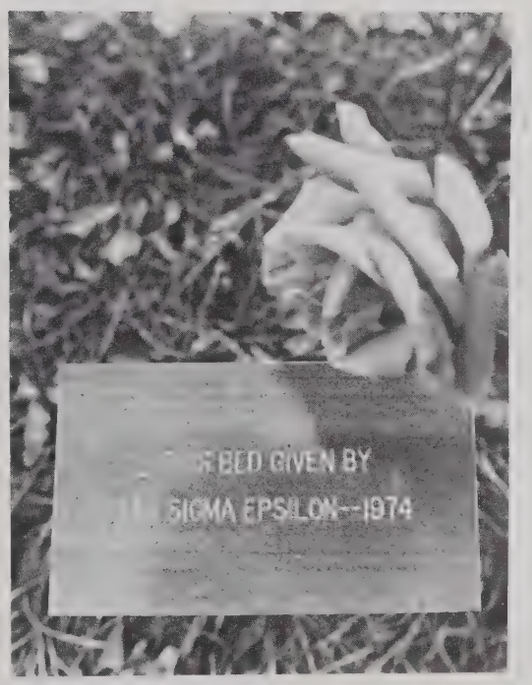
Gail A. Long, Sec.; Keith A. Wilson, Pres.; Melissa A. Wood, V. Pres.; Barbara R. Pearson, Treas.

TAU SIGMA EPSILON

Tau Sigma Epsilon, the Bob Jones Academy Service Club, held carwash projects to help raise money for Operation recreation, a program for raising funds for an Academy gymnasium. Other special projects included printing patriotic pamphlets for the Veterans' Day Flag-raising ceremony, sponsoring the annual BJA Chess Tournament, and initiating the 50/50 verse-memorization plan.

Volunteering many hours of service in the Academy, Tau Sig members acted as hall monitors and teachers' assistants, coordinated hall bulletin boards, operated the Tau Sig Library, and helped in the lost and found department. A high point in the spring was the annual Tau Sig breakfast, honoring all members for their work during the year.

Lois A. Cronemeyer, V. Pres.; Charlie B. Thompson, Jr., Pres.; Rhonda Lockhart, Hall Monitor Chr.; Sheryl L. Koons, Bulletin Board Chr.; Martha H. Gurganus, Teacher Assistant Chr.; Sponsors: Harold D. Roberts, Peter Steveson, Marjorie Kauffman.



TRIANGLE

The Triangle, the newspaper of Bob Jones Academy, expresses the basic idea of Christian education: the strengthening of the student mentally, physically, and spiritually. Introduced twenty-four years ago, this monthly publication records Academy events and presents traditional issues for such seasons as Christmas and Easter.

Linda A. Mulfinger, Editor; Miss Edith Markham, Advisor

DEBATE

During the first half of the year, the Academy Debate Association learned debating techniques, ethics, and procedures. The following semester the eight Academy societies formed two leagues in which qualified debaters represented their societies in six debates. Each league then presented its outstanding team to compete in the Championship Debate in the spring.
